Other: Any information that will help others understand the relationship between the informant and the item.

Social Data: This is what a video camera would record about the situation. Focus on the physical happenings. If submitting an item from the past, describe the setting in the past.

Cultural Data: This explains the larger context necessary to understand the items given in the social data. For example, the item that you are turning in is a joke you heard at a Relief Society Enrichment meeting. Social Data would include how many women in the group, the activity going on at the time, why someone told the joke, and other pertinent information. Cultural Data would explain what a homemaking group is, if the activity was traditional in nature, why only women are there, etc. Please include all of the information that you can think of that will make the item more understandable and more relevant. Having too much material is better than too little.

Item: (Describe how you collected, transcribed, and edited the item.)
Place the piece of folklore you have collected here.
